

Returns Policy Agreement

This policy agreement is between _____, Bookseller, and Wolfmont Press and/or Honey Locust Press, Publisher.

Bookseller acknowledges the following rules for return of books to Publisher:

1. The book order must be prepaid, in advance of shipment.
2. Books may not be returned BEFORE 90 days from date of receipt (to give them sufficient time to sell) and may not be returned AFTER 150 days from date of receipt.
3. No more than 50% of the last ordered quantity of any title may be returned.
4. Shipping for any returned books is paid by the bookseller (media rate is fine).
5. Books returned must be in good, resalable condition (not shopworn, not wrinkled, etc.) That also means UNSIGNED. If a book is signed or marked in any way, the bookseller keeps it.
6. Books are returned for credit, not cash refund. The credit will be issued within thirty days for any books that are returned in good, resalable condition.
7. Book orders/returns for specific signing engagements may be negotiated individually.

I hereby affirm that I am the owner or manager of Bookseller, and that I have the right to enter into binding legal agreements for Bookseller. I also understand that Publisher's failure to enforce strict adherence to any provision of this Agreement will not constitute a waiver of Publisher's right to enforce such provision or any other provision of this Agreement subsequently.
